Statement:

I am committed to protecting Alaskans' wallets, working to rightsize government, and getting Alaska on a sound fiscal path as we adjust to low oil revenues. As the candidate who knows the ropes, I can actually help move Alaska in the right direction. Alaskans are frustrated. I get it. Put me in the Senate to bring renewed strength and a commitment to conservative principles. I've been pushing hard and holding the line as one of the strong leaders who has adamantly said no to turning on the tax and PFD spigot when millions more in reductions are needed. I don't play politics but work hard, burning the midnight oil, so businesses can thrive, families can prosper and children can succeed because of increased opportunities and limited government.

Priorities:

- Substantially reduce state spending and implement sound fiscal plan
- Protect your pocketbook and PFD
- Make Alaska more job-friendly and pro-business: reduce hurdles
- Promote responsible resource and economic development
- Focus dollars on classrooms: public, private or homeschooling
- Ensure safe roads
- Strengthen public safety
- Tackle health care costs
- Ensure seniors and veterans can maintain quality of life
- Preserve family values

I am accountable, accessible and responsive. I have a solid conservative record. I have proven I work effectively and get things done. Always bearing in mind the Constitution, I work for you, not special interests. I'll keep you informed as I have my House district these past four years. I value your input. Please call me anytime (cell: 907-841-1634.)
