Statement:

I believe in a strong and independent Alaska, free from the control by the 2-party machine in Washington D.C. I believe in a vision of Alaska that includes major infrastructure energy, road, and rail projects for the Alaskan interior and western shores. I believe in expanding our military presence to include new Navy and Coast Guard bases in Alaska to protect our fishing grounds and Alaska's Arctic waterways. I believe in affordable Education opportunities for all Alaskans, especially the middle-class, who pay for everything and get very little in return. I believe in promoting Alaskan entrepreneurship to help diversity our economy. I believe in protecting our police and first responders by increasing our law enforcement presence, pay, and training to meet the growing threats from drug dealers and fringe radicals. I believe that Alaska deserves inspired and unfettered leadership in Washington D.C. that answers to the Alaskan voters and no one else.
