OTHER:

The Army brought me to Alaska (JBER) in 2007 while serving as a combat medic. Soon after I met my wife, a lifelong Alaskan. We spent much of our engagement while I was deployed to Iraq for my second combat tour, where I was awarded the Bronze Star Medal for meritorious duty in a combat zone.

I currently serve on the Mat-Su Borough Assembly and advocate strongly for personal liberty, property rights, fiscal responsibility, lower taxes, and small government. My term ends November 2026.

STATEMENT:

I am a Commonsense Conservative running to represent the Greater Palmer area. Integrity, honesty, and accountability are my core values and needed more than ever in Juneau. When you elect me to represent you, these will be my priorities:

Conservative Approach to Government. This means fiscal responsibility rather than new taxes and debt, as well as ensuring integrity, ethical conduct, transparency, and accountability.

Pro Life. Alaska’s Constitution is dedicated to the principle that all persons have a natural right to life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness. We must protect the right to life for all Alaskans from conception until natural death because without life, there is no liberty, and without liberty, there is no pursuit of happiness.

Natural Resource Development and Economic Growth. Alaska is open for business, and I support responsible natural resource development. I will support industry growth and robust infrastructure by guiding the growth of a healthy economy through private investors, not more government. A healthy economy, not taxes, builds strong infrastructure.

Agriculture and Food Security. I believe that supporting Alaska Grown and local farmers is vital to Alaska’s food security, health, and local economy.

Term Limits. Studies from conservative groups, such as the Heritage Foundation, indicate that states with legislative term limits consistently achieve better scores for overall fiscal health and budget control. Limiting terms also stops elected officials from making a lifelong career out of holding public office. This ensures lawmakers focus on passing effective policy rather than constantly campaigning for re-election.
