Position Statement

Amber Hansen: Supporting People Over Profit

I'm a mother, a neighbor, and a proud Alaskan who believes that freedom means having a say in your own life—and that our best days are ahead of us when we work together. I've raised my family here in the Mat-Su, and I know the strength, resilience, and generosity that define this community.

I'm running for House Representative for District 29 because real freedom means your body, your property, and your privacy belong to you—not to politicians, and not to giant corporations exploiting our land and labor. It means building a future where our families can thrive, not just survive.

My mission is clear:

Personal Liberty Above All: No mandates on your health, your home, or your family. Your life is yours to live.

Corporations Don't Get a Pass: No corporate welfare, no sweetheart deals, no selling our fisheries, water, or public lands to outside interests. Local people come first.

Support Families and Childcare: Too many parents can't find or afford childcare. I'll work to increase early learning options so no parent has to choose between a paycheck and their children.

This isn't left versus right. It's working families versus the wealthy few who rig the system. It's about keeping Wasilla free, independent, and accountable to each other, not to distant boardrooms.

I'm asking for your trust, your voice, and your vote. Together, we can build a District 29 that puts people over profit—every single time. Join me.
