Alaska's Ballot Counting System

Your Vote is Secure!

Alaska uses three different methods to count ballots:

- ❖ Hand-count
- ❖ Optical Scan
- ❖ Touch Screen equipped with voter-verifiable paper audit trail

Alaska's ballot tabulation system has a paper trail of every ballot cast. Each precinct receives paper ballots that are either hand-counted when the polls close or counted using an optical scan unit as the voter inserts the ballot into the optical scan. In addition, during federal elections, each precinct has a touch screen voting unit equipped with a voter-verifiable paper trail that allows the voter to verify the printed version of the ballot prior to casting the ballot.

The ballot tabulation system used in Alaska to produce and count ballots is federally certified and is thoroughly tested prior to each election. It is a stand-alone system that is not connected to the internet or to a network.

Each optical scan and touch screen voting unit, along with their corresponding memory cards are tested prior to the election. A functionality test is conducted to ensure the equipment is in proper working order. Two different logic and accuracy tests are performed, by two different bi-partisan boards, on memory cards to ensure the cards are counting the ballots correctly.

In addition to the pre-election testing, the division is required by law to conduct a verification of machine counts by hand-counting ballots from a random sampling of precincts. In fact, through this verification, 5% of the ballots cast in each of the 40 house districts throughout Alaska are hand-counted after the election to verify the election results are accurate. If we find a discrepancy of more than 1% in the hand-count verification, we are required to hand-count all of the ballots cast in the district.

With all the testing, security and verification processes used by the Division of Elections during each election, you can go to the polls knowing that your vote is secure and that it will be accurately counted and reported.

Voting Information

General Election Day is November 8, 2016

Polling Places

The polls will be open from 7:00 a.m. to 8:00 p.m. To locate your polling place please call 1-888-383-8683. In Anchorage, please call 269-8683.

Bring Identification to the Polls

You MUST be prepared to show one form of identification. You may use the following ID:

- Voter ID Card
- Driver's License
- State ID Card
- Current and valid photo ID Card
- Passport
- Military ID Card
- Birth Certificate
- Hunting or Fishing License

or, you may use an original copy of one of the following documents if it contains your name and current address:

- Current Utility Bill

Questioned Ballots

If your name does not appear on the precinct register or if you do not have identification, you may vote a questioned ballot. Your voted ballot will be placed in a secrecy sleeve and then sealed inside a completed questioned ballot envelope. The information you provide on the outside of the questioned ballot envelope will be used to determine your voting eligibility and to update your voter registration. If for any reason your questioned ballot is not fully counted, you will be notified in writing.

Marking the Ballot

When voting, fill in the oval next to the choice you wish to vote for.

Mark only one choice in each section. If you mark more than one choice, that section of the ballot will NOT be counted. You do not have to vote each section.

If you make a mistake marking your ballot, DO NOT erase or correct the ballot. Return your ballot to an election worker and request a new ballot. Sections with eraser marks or where more than one choice is selected will not be counted.

Campaigning Prohibited

Campaigning is not allowed within 200 feet of any entrance to a polling place during the hours the polls are open. This includes any discussions about candidates or issues appearing on the ballot or displaying campaign items such as signs, bumper stickers or buttons.

Voter Assistance and Concerns

Assistance While Voting

If you need language or other assistance during the voting process, you may have a person of your choice help you as long as that person is not a candidate for office in the election, is not your employer, agent of your employer or agent of a union you belong to. You can have help during each step of the voting process, including inside the voting booth with reading or marking the ballot. The election workers at the polling place are available to help you as well. This is your right under federal law.

Alaska Native Language Assistance

Bilingual outreach workers and poll workers have been hired by the Division of Elections to provide language assistance in rural areas where there are limited English proficient Alaska Native voters. Before Election Day, bilingual workers make announcements, provide election information to their community and are available to provide language assistance for any voting related activity, including voter registration, absentee voting and to assist with all information in this pamphlet. On Election Day, bilingual workers will provide language assistance at the polling place with the voting process, including translating the ballot.

If you need the name of the person who has been hired to provide language assistance in your community, please contact the Division of Elections. For Alaska Native language assistance call, toll free 1-866-954-8683.

Touch Screen Voting Machine

On Election Day, each polling place will have a touch screen voting machine. The touch screen voting machine is intended for the blind, disabled, and for voters who do not read well. It allows voters to vote unassisted through the use of magnified, high contrast and audio ballots. In rural areas where there are limited English proficient Alaska Native voters, the touch screen voting machine will also have an audio translation of the ballot in Alaska Native languages. Voting an audio ballot may take 15 – 20 minutes. If you need to vote using the touch screen voting machine, let the election board know.

Visually Impaired Voters

Magnifying ballot viewers are available at all polling places and absentee voting sites. Audio recording of this pamphlet is available at each Regional Election Office, from the Alaska State Library, Talking Book Center, located in Juneau and on the Division of Elections website. Telephone the library at (907) 465-1315 or toll free (888) 820-4525 for information.

STATEMENT:

As President of the United States, Mr. Castle's priority will be to strictly adhere to the Constitution in any proposed legislation or federal government policies, including the ending of unconstitutional wars and unconstitutional foreign aid. He will work to make sure that America's veterans and military personnel receive the care and support they need for injuries and hardships they have incurred while serving in the armed forces.

He will work to withdraw the United States from the United Nations and restore American Sovereignty. He will also work to end the Federal Reserve System and restore the gold standard to strengthen the dollar, both home and abroad.

He will work to withdraw the federal government from international legislation such as Agenda 21 and begin the process of handing control of their lives and property back to the local people.

Another priority of a Castle presidency will be to work towards the ending of abortion in America by vetoing any funding for abortion providers such as Planned Parenthood, as well as recommending to Congress (and working to make it happen) that they remove all jurisdiction over such matters from the Supreme Court.

Darrell Castle believes that "It is the nature of the State to seek dominance over the population. Freedom will not ultimately remain intact if we leave it unattended. America needs forward thinking leaders. Self-hatred and appeasement only foster more disrespect. We must find a way to chart our own course in the world as free and independent people."

The United States Constitution is a written, binding contract between those elected to hold office, and the citizens of the nation. All who hold office are required to take an oath to abide by the Constitution. The Constitution grants specific power, and withholds all other power from the national government. Those holding the reins of power at the national level have forgotten the sound principles of proper government which are embodied in the plain English words of the United States Constitution, and we have strayed far into paths which undermine our liberty and our God-given unalienable rights.

I seek a return to the foundation principles upon which this nation was established, working to restore a national government which is constrained to act within the framework defined within the Constitution. This will protect our individual God-given unalienable rights, and allow us to preserve the blessings of liberty for ourselves and our posterity.

This nation is mired in the morass of party politics. We continue to vote for the same two parties, with the same disappointing outcomes.

If you are tired of "politics as usual," and have grown weary of the agendas of the current two party system; seeing an ever increasing encroachment of big government in your life, regardless of the party which holds power, join with me and others who love liberty more than the political process.

Vote for the restoration of the original principles of liberty.

My contract with America is my oath to the United States Constitution.

STATEMENT:

I've dedicated my career to making a difference for children and families. From working with leaders in both parties to help pass the Children's Health Insurance Program to standing up for human rights abroad, I know how to stand my ground—and how to find common ground.

This campaign is based on the notion that Americans are stronger together. We're stronger when everyone can contribute to the economy and share in its growth, when we work with our allies to keep America secure, and when we're united, not divided.

In our first 100 days, we'll make the biggest investment in good-paying jobs since World War II. We'll invest in infrastructure, manufacturing, clean energy, and small businesses. We'll pay for our plans by making Wall Street, corporations, and the super-wealthy pay their fair share in taxes.

We'll make college debt-free for all and tuition-free for the middle class. We'll crack down on companies that ship jobs overseas, and reward companies that share profits with their employees. We'll make it easier to balance work and family. And we'll bring opportunity to communities that have been left out and left behind.

Americans aren't just electing a president; we're choosing a Commander-in-Chief. We've laid out a comprehensive strategy to keep America safe by defeating ISIS, standing with our allies, and respecting those who serve our country.

We know that America's best days are still ahead of us. When Americans come together, there's nothing we can't do.

STATEMENT:

In my more than two decades in public service, I've never met anyone more qualified to be President than Hillary Clinton. That's why I'm so humbled and grateful to be her running mate.

Growing up, I went to a Jesuit boys school with the motto "Men for Others," where my faith became an organizing principle for my life. So during law school, I took a year off to volunteer with Jesuit missionaries in Honduras. I saw a system where only a few folks at the top had all the power, and everyone else got left behind. It was that experience that cemented my commitment to social justice. I went on to become a civil rights lawyer – and later a city councilman, mayor, and governor – to help ensure everyone has the chance to live up to their God-given potential.

That's why Hillary Clinton and I have a plan to make the economy work for everyone, not just those at the top.
We'll invest in infrastructure, help small businesses, raise the minimum wage, and ensure equal pay and paid family leave. And we'll tackle other challenges—from reforming our criminal justice and immigration systems to ending the gun violence epidemic to getting unaccountable money out of politics.

If I'm good at anything in public life, it's because I started at the local level – listening to people and trying to find consensus. I've seen the progress that's possible when we come together to overcome challenges. We truly are stronger together.

Roque “Rocky” De La Fuente, Non-Affiliated

OTHER:

“Rocky” Roque De La Fuente is living proof that the American Dream can be achieved by those who are inspired to pursue it. He has an amazing record of success. From earning an FAA license to fly single engine planes at the age of 20 to owning 28 automobile dealerships and becoming Chairman of the National Dealers Council for the third largest automobile manufacturer in the world by the age of 28, he’s in a league by himself. He created a banking network in 1982 to help address Mexico’s economic crisis and established impressive real estate holdings throughout the United States while creating thousands of new jobs along the way. In 1992, Rocky became the first Hispanic American to serve as a Delegate-At-Large for the State of California at a National Convention. He holds a bachelor’s degree in Physics and Mathematics (Magna Cum Laude) and an honorary doctorate from UNESCO.

STATEMENT:

I’m not a career politician. I’m just like you. I live in the real world, not a political one.

I don’t have to pretend to understand minority issues because I am a minority.

I don’t have to pretend to understand how to create jobs because I have created thousands.

I don’t have to pretend to understand the importance of paying a fair wage and providing health care benefits because I’ve witnessed the impact it has on the lives of the families of those I employed.

I don’t have to pretend to understand international relations because I’ve traveled extensively and both lived and worked abroad.

I don’t have to pretend to care about the environment because I’m actually doing something about it through renewable energy.

I don’t even have to pretend to understand the cost of education... because I have five children.

And where I really differ: I don’t look at problems through a political lens; I look at them through a practical one.

Our Nation is at a crossroad. Einstein once said, “We cannot solve our problems with the same thinking we used when we created them.” I would suggest that it’s also true that we cannot solve our problems with the same people who created them. We’re suffering from political gridlock fashioned by career politicians who place party politics ahead of the people. Additionally, our election process has been rigged to maintain the status quo. It’s time for change, and I will do everything in my power to deliver it.

Michael Steinberg, Non-Affiliated

OTHER:

Michael Steinberg is a married father of three. He has a Juris Doctorate degree and a BA in Economics. Michael is a member of the Florida Bar and is licensed to practice before the United States Supreme Court, the United States Federal Court of Appeals, the United States Circuit Court (11th Circuit), the United States District Courts for Florida's Northern, Southern and Middle Districts, and the United States Court of Appeals for Veterans Claims. He practices law in the areas of Social Security Disability, Veterans' Disability Benefits, Private Long-Term Disability, ERISA and Personal Injury. Community and professional service are extremely important to him. In that regard, he has longtime relationships with the Hillsborough County Bar Association, the National Organization for Veterans' Advocates, the National Organization of Social Security Claimants' Representatives, and the Hillsborough County Healthcare Advisory Board in Florida, and he has been active in politics for over 16 years.

STATEMENT:

I envision a country where policy is based on the interests of the people rather than just a privileged few. Unfortunately, we have lost our way on that point in recent years.

I believe in the free market system, but the system must be fair. To grow the middle class, we need to create and keep jobs in this country that pay a fair wage and provide access to healthcare. We should support laws that encourage innovation and investment in durable goods, machinery and equipment. However, we must demand that the rest of the world conducts trade with us on a level playing field.

I also believe that every child deserves the opportunity to receive a quality education because to do otherwise is to sentence them to remain right where they are. We have grown stagnant as a nation, and upward mobility has been ground to a halt. We have to begin growing the middle class again, and education is the key.

As a Social Security Disabilities attorney for over 30 years, I'll work to ensure that Social Security Retirement and Disability programs, along with Medicare, remain solvent and are operated in a professional, courteous and efficient manner.

Additionally, our nation is facing a debt crisis. While we need to address waste and fraud in government, that is not enough. We need a tax policy that treats people fairly and new jobs to increase tax revenues.

And finally, I'll work hard to restore integrity to our electoral system.

Gary Johnson was elected Governor of New Mexico as a Republican in an overwhelming Democratic state – and re-elected to a second term by a wide margin.

Despite two terms as Governor, Gary Johnson prefers to call himself an entrepreneur. To pay for college, he started a one-man handyman business. Twenty years later, the one-man-shop had grown into one of the largest construction companies in New Mexico, with more than 1,000 employees.

Johnson is best known for resisting the temptation to solve every problem with government spending and regulation, having vetoed more than 750 bills during his time in office. He also cut taxes 14 times while never raising them.

An avid skier, adventurer, and bicyclist, Johnson has scaled the highest peak on each of the seven continents, including Mt. Everest.

He has two grown children, and currently resides in a house he built himself in Taos, New Mexico.

STATEMENT:

I believe the majority of Americans share the simple notions of financial responsibility and personal freedom. Government should leave us alone to pursue our dreams, live our lives and make our own choices -- as long as those choices do not harm or endanger others. And government should do less, spend less and cost less.

Alaska's history is one of self-reliance, independence and tolerance. Liberty is more than a slogan, it is the true American value, and Alaskans understand that. The proper role of government is to safeguard liberty, keep us safe, and insure equality of opportunity. It is not the role of government to choose winners and losers, intervene in the sovereign affairs of other nations, and manage every aspect of our daily lives.

The two party system and the elected officials who put partisanship above good public policy have failed us. I am running for President to offer a credible, experienced and independent alternative to the gridlock that has become Washington, DC. I also believe strongly that integrity and the truth are not too much to ask of a President, and are, in fact, what the American people deserve.

Smaller government, greater freedom, a foreign policy intended to keep America safe, and honest leadership. Those are what I respectfully offer to the voters of Alaska and the rest of the nation.

William 'Bill' Weld was elected Governor of Massachusetts in 1990 with 51% of the vote. He was re-elected in 1994 with a record breaking 71% of the vote, a record that still stands today.

As Governor, Bill led 16 trade missions to Asia, Africa, Europe, and Latin America, and during the past decade, has traveled widely in connection with his international law and business consulting practice. He served as national co-chair of U.S. Term Limits, and of the United States Privatization Council. In his earlier career Bill served as a federal prosecutor for seven years, winning convictions in 110 out of 111 public corruption cases brought by his office.

Bill and his wife Leslie Marshall make their home in Massachusetts and have eight children.

STATEMENT:

Despite the state legislature being controlled by a Democratic majority, as Governor, Bill Weld managed to cut taxes 21 times and did not permit any tax increases. A 1994 report from the Cato institute concluded that, "Weld cut spending, balanced the budget, improved the state's bond rating, and cut numerous taxes. Even with a Democratic legislature, Weld has a stunningly successful fiscal record."

How did he do this without compromising education and other important state functions? He doesn't believe that a government that looks to your pocket book to solve every problem is a healthy way to conduct policy. Rather, Governor Weld identified areas of government inefficiency, spending that was not serving the public interest, and got rid of wasteful programs that would never be supported if the people knew just how unproductive they were.

He did this, in part, by championing programs like those that helped welfare recipients get jobs to reduce their long-term reliance on government assistance, improve their self-reliance and self-esteem, and in turn, create a more productive society. But don't think that Bill's pursuit of fiscal responsibility prevented him from his personal belief in social tolerance.

Bill was not only an early proponent of civil rights for gays and lesbians, he actually appointed the judge who wrote the opinion that established marriage equality as a matter of constitutional right.

As Vice-President of the United States, Bill Weld would take those same values to Washington, DC.

For the past 54 years my love and wife Francoise and I have done everything TOGETHER, including our campaigns for senator and governor, and WE will put ALL of our substantial combined skills, talents, knowledge, abilities, and experience to the maximum service and benefit of our fellow Alaskans.

STATEMENT:

I am running for US Senate only for ONE 6-year term to do TWO great things for Alaska: 1. Take far better care of Alaska's veterans AND their families, and 2. Finally open ANWR, in the best and most beneficial way for America, Alaska, and wildlife, to fill our 3/4ths empty Alaska oil pipeline. Please see my www.tedandfran.com website for details.

That's it! I have no interest whatsoever in sitting in the US Senate for 36 years, as father-daughter Frank and Lisa Murkowski have done serving themselves instead of serving Alaska. It is so obvious to all Alaskans that for father-daughter Murkowski, it's always been about themselves, first and foremost, and never about Alaska.

Enough of their hypocritical lies! Enough of their 36 years of ANWR failure! Enough of letting Alaska's oil pipeline, one of the world's largest, dwindle down, year after year, to 3/4ths EMPTY, while father-daughter Murkowski have been stuffing their pockets at Alaska's expense!

Serving Alaska and America in the United States Senate is a privilege and an honor, and should ONLY be undertaken by anyone for a SHORT time to actually do great things for Alaskans and Americans, and then to get the heck out and go home. It's not a dynastic opportunity to sit there decade after decade doing nothing of real substance, while ripping off the taxpayer who foots the bill for senate self-service.

I will serve YOU for ONE term and leave, setting an example for those who follow!

SERVICE ORGANIZATION(S) MEMBERSHIP:

Six months promoting Bernie Sanders for President, initiated the "Yes on One" ballot proposition attempting to overturn the Legislature's oil tax giveaway.

SPECIAL INTERESTS:

Continuing the momentum of Bernie Sanders' agenda. Bernie's agenda fits well with my hobby of 20 years; exposing political corruption wherever I find it, regardless of party.

OTHER:

While in the Legislature, I chaired one hearing on Jay Hammond's Permanent Fund Dividend Bill and was a primary author of the investment strategy for the Permanent Fund.

STATEMENT:

I am Alaska's anticorruption candidate, and a Berniecrat.

Four years in Alaska's Legislature opened my eyes; Alaska's political machine, and America's political machine, has become a system of mutual dependency between elected officials and large donors seeking financial rewards. After contributing, large donors send paid lobbyists to remind those they helped elect what they expect in return. A never ending cycle of trading campaign contributions for appropriations infects both political parties.

Example: Today, politicians returning favors to the billionaires are blocking Sen. Elizabeth Warren's student loan interest reduction proposal from passing. Warren's Bill would enable over twenty million student loan borrowers to refinance their federal loan debt at today's lower 3.9% interest. The reduced interest income to the federal student loan program would be replaced by requiring billionaires to start paying the same federal tax rate on their net income that middle class Americans already pay.

Just one example of corruption and greed standing in the way of social justice and the American dream.

I spent three years helping Federal Investigators and Prosecutors with the investigation of Bill Allen, Ben Stevens, and six other Alaskan legislators caught taking bribes to keep Alaska's tax on oil far below what other countries get for their oil. I have made a career of exposing political bribery. If elected, I will focus on what is good for all Alaskans, not the handful of big Alaskan contributors and billionaires from outside.

If elected I will stand with Bernie Sanders and Elizabeth Warren on most issues.

STATEMENT:

Stop Congressional Abuses: Congressional insider trading and effective immunity from federal laws have created a wealthy Washington aristocracy, steeped in corruption.
Congress must live under the laws it imposes on all of us.

Immigration: Obama's illegal amnesty and refugee laws must be enforced. American workers shouldn't lose their jobs to cheap, illegal labor.

Government Debt: It's time to stop stealing from future

STATEMENT:

As a third generation Alaskan who grew up in to Alaskans.

As a resource-rich state, access to our land and resources is vital to protect the self-determination promised to us at statehood. As Chairman of the my mission is to provide safe, reliable and affordable energy to all Alaskans and fight for access to our natural resources across America.

I am continually amazed by the courage and perseverance of my fellow Alaskans and will continue learn from the wisdom of the First Alaskans. Working together, we have preserved languages and improved access to education and healthcare. Alaska is home to more than 20,000 active duty service members and 77,000 veterans. We must continue to strengthen and preserve Alaska's strategic military importance and implement reforms at the Veterans Administration so that the men and women, who dedicated their lives to

I will continue to fight for the prosperity of our state and our nation. As parents, Verne and I want a

STATEMENT:

As an Independent I will place the interests of Alaska and our country ahead of party politics and corporate special interests. I am a pragmatic problem solver, not a politician.

Campaign finance reform is critical to returning control of Washington to the people. I am not accepting corporate PAC money. I support overturning Citizens United, banning lobbyist contributions while Congress is in session, and disclosing all political spending.

We must elect Independents to end the partisan gridlock in Washington. Our Senators should actually vote on the hundreds of executive and judicial nominees awaiting decision. Congress must protect our social safety net including Social Security from corporate privatization schemes. Congress must make sure that Medicare/Medicaid works for all citizens and not just drug companies.

The federal government must understand Alaska's unique interests and avoid overreach. I will oppose laws that require Alaskans to do more and more with less and less money. I will listen closely to Alaska Native communities and collaborate with them to encourage self-determination and support economic development.

Alaskans value their Constitutional Rights to liberty, privacy, and to be free from government intrusion. I will fight to protect all of our Constitutional rights, including Second Amendment rights, a woman's right to make her own reproductive decisions, and marriage equality.

We need our government to work as the Framers of our Constitution intended. To do this, we need a Congress that serves the people, not the narrow interests of a political party or those with special access and power.

STATEMENT:

Steve Lindbeck is running for Congress because Alaska faces economic challenges it's never faced before – and the old way of doing things isn't working anymore. Our state needs a congressman who understands the challenges we face and will provide the leadership needed to build a new future for Alaska. Steve will stand up against special interests and partisan gridlock and always put Alaskans first.

The son of a Pearl Harbor survivor, Steve moved to Alaska at age nine when his father was stationed on Kodiak Island. He was the first in his family to attend a four-year college, and during summers, he worked as a tour bus driver, furniture mover, sandblaster, and cannery worker to pay his way through school.

Steve has dedicated his life to working with people across Alaska – as a journalist with the Anchorage Daily News and Anchorage Times, as a vice chancellor at the University of Alaska, and as Executive Director of the Alaska Humanities Forum, where he worked with local leaders on cultural and educational projects in villages and Native communities. As General Manager of Alaska Public Media, Steve pulled the organization out of deep financial trouble and strengthened our vital public television and radio networks.

Steve understands we need new energy to diversify our economy and build a vibrant future for Alaska. As Congressman, Steve will work to support our small businesses, invest in infrastructure, make college affordable, fight for early childhood education and affordable childcare – to build a better future for our state.

STATEMENT:

Military: Military action should only be employed when our homeland is threatened. We should not use our military service members as the world's police. I would like to see our military employed to help better secure our own borders.

Immigration: I believe we ought to allow for a more free flow of immigration via work-visas for those who can find work & contribute to our society. Especially recent university graduates with degrees in highly sought after fields of industry need.

Drugs: I believe that marijuana ought to be regulated in the same manner as alcohol. I would rather see some of our nation's wealth spent on educating our people on the danger of alcohol & drug abuse, rather than spent on incarcerating our people for marijuana use & sales. The many billions of dollars saved can then be used to enhance our society and reduce the tax burden on our citizens.

Law Making: We are a nation of laws but also a nation of redundancy within our legal system. We need to re-examine national laws to ensure only the needed & relevant laws are in place.

Crime: Let's help law breakers through positive rehabilitation programs, and not allow the worst of the worst to prey over other inmates.

Foreign Aid: Our government needs to stop giving billions of our tax dollars to nations whose governments are hostile to our way of life and our cultural values.

Government: End crony capitalism between big government & big business.

OTHER:

Educated by Dominican Sisters, Irish Christian Brothers and Jesuits College of Loyola of Chicago, Bernie has been a self-employed worker and independent achiever. Attracted by Alaska wilderness and distant boundaries, Bernie discovered Kotzebue in 1976. Northwestern Alaska is covered in tundra and frozen rivers trails along the lower Brooks Range between Ambler and Shungnak. From glorious northern lights winter to the midnight sun, muktuk, pilot bread, frozen caribou, sheefish and native cuisine; Alaskan spirit is now in his heart and belly. There's no turning back; Alaska is home. Forty-one years later in 2016, with a lifetime of quiet successes, 3 adult children, and 3 great businesses, Bernie is joining Alaskan future builders.

STATEMENT:

Beginning with Russian fur traders in the 1750's, the 1896 gold rush and fish canneries in the 1920's, to timber harvest of the 1940's and the Prudhoe oil of 1970, Alaska has repeatedly relied on cyclic, boom and bust economies. Alaska's new 2020 economy needs to transition to stable, viable, job-based enterprises by protecting existing businesses and incubating new ones.

Congress is grid-locked; unable to govern with a budget sequestration guillotine hanging over itself. We must move beyond the political finger pointing for answers. Our conversation has to go beyond sustaining an oil-fed economy. Legislators and bureaucrats have gone soft depending on oil-related jobs. The new global economy of e-trade, software development, and pioneering AI research requires aggressive approaches. Alaska has to compete with other states for these jobs. Federal appropriations are subjected to partisan bickering; Alaskans must develop Alaska to transition from exporting jobs to importing jobs.

As an everyday worker like you, we want stability, steady growth, and affordable opportunities for a place we can call home. With no political party ties and obligations, I am like you; an independent Alaskan. Unlike career politicians, I will collaborate with everyone to help achieve an economy founded on sustainable job expansion. Let's aim for growth of tourism industry, infrastructure construction and a firm education foundation.

Vote Yes to the 2020 Economy.

Vote for an independent business voice for our Alaskan delegation.

Send Bernie to Congress!

STATEMENT:

Throughout my service to Alaska, I've worked to protect the unique beauty, abundant resources, and resilient people of our state. Whether it's protecting our economy from job-killing rules and regulations, empowering families and small businesses with new opportunities, or defending the constitution; I've always fought to do what's right for Alaska.

While our state has experienced many successes throughout our history, the work to protect Alaska's future is far from over. We are faced with a barrage of one size fits all, "Washington knows best" policies that jeopardize our already sensitive economy, lock away our lands and resources, and ignore the needs of our people. After eight long years under the Obama Administration and no guarantee the landscape will be any different in 2017, now, more than ever, Alaskans need a proven and experienced fighter in congress to push back against the federal government's heavy hand.

With the confidence you've entrusted in me, and the relationships I've built in Congress, I'm strategically positioned to defend Alaska's interests as a senior member of two powerful committees and as the Chairman of the Indian, Insular and Alaska Native Affairs Subcommittee. Through these key positions and a deep passion for our people, I'm confident that Alaska will continue to shape the many policy debates needed to build a stronger, more vibrant state for generations to come.

My motivation and enthusiasm for the Alaskan people remains as strong as ever. With your support I look forward to continuing our fight for Alaska's future.

Municipal League one of the things I hear frequently is that legislators who have not served at the local level have a disconnect from their communities and don't fully understand the impacts to their communities of the decisions they make or do not make.

I have served at the local level for the last 10 years as an assembly member, as a member of the board of equalization, and as a contractor I am engaged every single day with members of our community. I hear and know their concerns and issues.

As a state legislator, I will know the impacts of the decisions I will make on our communities.

The decisions I make will always be made with the intent of bettering our communities and moving us forward in a positive manner.

I don't gravitate towards special, but rather towards,
the best public interest.

I've always been known for fact finding, gathering information and being prepared for the issues. I'll continue to do the same in Juneau.

I believe our budget issues are serious but not dire.
I also believe they will be substantially resolved and we will move forward with a balanced budget next legislative session.

I do not support any NEW taxes or tax increases at this time. I do support a change in the Permanent Fund earnings (SB 128) and a continued reduction in state spending, specifically the state operating budget.

I would appreciate your support.

Dear Neighbors

Daniel Lynch, born and raised on the shores of Lake Michigan, is a 20-plus-year resident of the Kenai Peninsula. During his 35 years in the construction industry, he has worked in both rural and metro areas from the East Coast to the Midwest to the Rocky Mountains, finally putting down roots in Alaska.

During his 20 years of residency and employment in this great state he has been fortunate to have worked in towns and villages from the Kotzebue to Kake, as well as extensively on the Kenai Peninsula. It is this experience, from all around Alaska, that has instilled in Daniel a deep understanding of the many issues and challenges facing all areas of our state, as well as potential solutions for our citizens. Speaking as a construction worker and not a politician, these can be achieved "on time and under budget."

STATEMENT:

Dear Fellow Voters:

I am from the era in which our president, President Kennedy, asked not what our country could do for us, but what we could do for our country. In this case also our state and our district. Raised with this in mind, and choosing not to be a spectator or a leech, I feel a duty to serve and to offer much needed change. I'm non-partisan (a free thinker) because over the last 25 years I've witnessed Washington D.C. becoming increasingly gridlocked, with zero positive advances for our country. It is the same cancer that I have seen spread to Juneau, leaving our state with huge financial and social holes and no positive solutions and only "phantom" diversification to our economy.

Having been retired now for two years, I have had time to consider the many issues facing our state and believe I have come up with some reality-based, common-sense solutions to our debt and revenue woes, as well as potential paths toward real diversification, and growth for all Alaskans, not just the special interests.

When November arrives, please ask, for yourself, your kids, your grandchildren: Do I want to vote for more of the status quo, simply because that's in my comfort zone? Or would I like to help grab the rudder and change the direction of our "ship of state," and steer it back in a positive direction, with opportunities for all Alaskans.

Ideas, questions? 907-262-2570.

Thank you for your time, consideration, and vote.

STATEMENT:
When I ran for Governor in 2014, I warned Alaskans about the budget troubles ahead. I campaigned vigorously to defend our PFD, and to adopt a sustainable budget going forward. This requires a major downsizing of state government. The Legislature and Governor appear incapable of exercising fiscal restraint. We must address the waste, fraud and abuse riddling Alaska government.
If not, our private sector will suffer. I am concerned that the current lack of vision in Juneau will lead to an economic collapse in Alaska. I am committed to fight to make sure that doesn't happen.

If elected, I promise to continue to fight to:
Restore & Protect the PFD.
Support the Iser/Goldsmith economic model.
Oppose new taxes and fees. No statewide sales tax.
No statewide income tax.
End the Crony Legislative Caucus.
Relocate the State Capitol from Juneau, where lobbyists

Alaskans are ignored.
Recall the Governor.

I have played a leadership role in many community groups and know that there are many things we can do that will enhance our beautiful area and preserve the essence of why we each choose to call it home. I am ready to bring my experience, hardworking values, and determination to work for our community. After going to school while working full time and raising children, I understand the issues facing families today. I believe that your voice is important and I pledge to listen to you and to make sure your concerns and issues are heard in Juneau. As Speaker of the Coalition of Student Leaders I effectively advocated for 34,000 University Students statewide. I believe that education is the key to achieving our potential. We need innovative ideas and solutions for our economic, environmental, and social issues. I will work hard to ensure opportunities for all Alaskans to provide for themselves, through education, sustainability and employment opportunities. Public schools benefit all Alaskans by creating an educated, qualified workforce, able to take the jobs created by small and large business here in Alaska. We must make good training opportunities for good jobs available to all Alaskans. We must expand and diversify Alaska's economy by developing sustainable resources, value added processing of our commodities, and jobs in renewable energy. I will always advocate for responsible spending and transparency in our state budget. With your vote, we can make great things happen!

STATEMENT:

I am running for re-election to the Alaska Senate. It has been an honor and a pleasure to serve in the Alaska legislature for the past 16 years. I have been Senate President, Chairman of Legislative Council, Education, and Rules as well as Majority Leader. I recently served as National Chairman of the Council of State Governments. I have learned enormous lessons about how best to assist the communities I represent. I look forward to meeting, listening to and learning from every community in our district.

My priorities include excellence in education, finding solutions to the high dropout rate in our schools and low graduation rate in higher education, improving civic engagement, maintaining a healthy economy and well-paying jobs, moving ahead on oil and gas development, protecting our fishing and tourism industries and support for our veterans and seniors.

I have served as an elected public official for over 27 years, as Borough Mayor, City Mayor, School Board President, as well as a state legislator. That experience has given me a solid understanding of the needs of all levels of government here in our district.

Rita and I have been married for over 40 years with three grown children; Anna, Matthew, Natalie and two sons-in-law, Colby and Will. We recently welcomed our first grandchild, Isadora, to our family.

I promise to continue providing this district with the best possible representation I can in the Alaska Senate.

STATEMENT:

Paul Seaton has been actively involved in Kenai Peninsula communities for 41 years. As your Representative he works hard for an Alaska that values fiscal responsibility, quality education, improved health care, responsible resource development, and accountable government.

Paul responded to the needs of Alaska's students for quality education by finding answers to funding problems that enjoyed bipartisan support. Paul is a leader in bringing technology and vocational education back to the classroom and worked hard for the results-based Alaska Performance Scholarships and Project Grad that reward hard work by making Alaskan colleges and technical schools more affordable.

Paul continues to work to improve the safety and access to quality healthcare. His efforts to reduce the widespread vitamin D deficiency in Alaskans is making progress toward better health from lower cancer rates to teenage behavioral health.

Paul works hard to ensure resource development is responsive to our communities. Paul works with everyone to derive fair value for Alaska's non-renewable resources. He sponsors expanded coastal fishery opportunities for Alaskans.

Please vote to return Paul to the State House to continue listening to and working for Peninsula residents.

STATEMENT:

Alaska is suffering from economic gangrene. We've got to restore the blood flow to our budget, or we face economic amputation. Most Alaskans realize our state's cash emergency is life threatening. We must get past our inaction and cure the disease.

Alaska's path to recovery is relatively simple: increase revenue while keeping costs of state government at or below current levels. All revenue possibilities need to be on the table and all costs of state government need to be reviewed.

The State must create about $3.2 billion dollars in new revenue to balance the budget. I like the approach of marrying the use of permanent fund earnings to expected oil revenues; with more oil revenue, less money is used from the permanent fund earnings.

The state's use of Permanent fund earnings should provide about half of our operating budget gap or $1.6 -1.7 billion, with a portion of the remaining gap filled with revenue from a comparatively small personal income tax. An income tax captures non-resident earners, particularly in the oil and fishing industries. Any income tax should also be married to expected oil revenues.

In addition, Alaska's oil industry must contribute more toward a balanced budget through a combination of revised tax rates and reduced tax credits.

What about State spending? Given our urban-focused legislature, it's likely that additional cuts will result in disproportionate harm to rural Alaska. I'd much rather focus on the revenue side and keep these essential services funded while being diligent to identify savings opportunities.

STATEMENT:

It is crucial the State of Alaska has a balanced, sustainable budget going into the future. This is necessary in order to provide a stable economy for the people of this state, as well as businesses and future investors. In order to create this stability it is going to be necessary to continue cutting waste in Government, decrease oil tax credits, and pursue new forms of revenue generation. It is time to look at a reformation of the PFD, so that we insure we are able to continue to pay dividends to future generations, while continuing to move our state in a forward direction. Fish and fish related occupations are this state's largest private employer, we need to maintain a healthy, sustainable, renewable resource in fish. Sufficient funding of the Department of Fish and Game is imperative. It is our duty to protect all of our natural resources for the betterment of the people of this state. Adequate funding of K-12 education and Public Safety is necessary.

In order to accomplish this, it is necessary to have the ability and relationships to work across the table with all legislators. I believe my record for the last 2 years has shown I have created those relationships. I have been proud to serve as your Representative and I hope to continue to be your voice in Juneau for the 2017-2019 legislative session.

My background is in aircraft maintenance, fishing and tourism. I have skills and experience in rescue and recovery. I am a small organic grower; I subsistence fish, along with smoking and canning salmon; skills that keep me sustainable.

STATEMENT:

Our District covers a vast area that stretches across our Southern coast. My goal is to develop a connection with the people that are working so hard to meet their communities needs and bring their voice to the discussion. Clean water, affordable housing, local food production, and infrastructure that links us digitally and physically, are some of their concerns that I want to address.

It is my objective to see a moratorium on coal mining and fracking in Alaska, like the Chuitna River, Cook Inlet and Cooper River projects. I'm actively working to prevent salmon habitat destruction during resource extraction. Special interests cannot come before the safety of our water. We need new ideas and approaches, new coalitions. While my opponents divide up the fishery we stand ready to lose the very habitat that provides these fish. I want to be sure the environment is sound for our salmon. No clean water equals no fish, and without enough fish no coastal community can survive here.

Another subject of serious interest is local food production, this is a key element in maintaining physical and mental health, and in keeping coastal communities sustainable.

I feel strongly that I must step forward and offer the voters of District 32 a choice. More of the same won't get Juneau back on track; no new taxes until oil pays its fair share. As Democrats we look to a future that is inclusive, progressive and sustainable.

STATEMENT:

I am a lifelong Alaskan with Tlingit and Japanese heritage. As a Civil Engineer, I bring a unique perspective to the state Legislature. My work as an engineer has brought me to many parts of the state, helping me to understand challenges faced by people in many Alaskan communities.

I have a strong commitment to providing full funding for education of Alaska's children in our K-12 schools. I also support state funded early education programs, and believe that early education is an essential tool to improve scholastic performance of our children.

I support a stable capital funding that keeps Alaska's infrastructure in good condition. I also believe that we need to take care of the infrastructure we have before building new infrastructure. We have many aging roads, public buildings and schools that need work, making sure these facilities are taken care of should be a funding priority before deciding to build new public facilities.

I will work to insure that Alaska's communities are healthy and safe for all of our residents and I will work for a strong economy that includes job opportunities for Alaskan's today and in the future.

I am the proud father of a teenage daughter, and am committed to giving back to the community and the state that has been so good to me.

I would appreciate your vote, and look forward to working for you in our Legislature.

STATEMENT:

Serving the people of Juneau and Southeast Alaska is an honor. I enjoy the day to day challenge of going to bat for my constituents on a wide range of issues. I also enjoy working to create educational and economic opportunity for our citizens. Preparing our young people for local jobs whether in mining, the public sector, tourism or the construction trades is one of my top priorities. I have also focused on strengthening our capital city through major investments in the Alaska State Capitol, surrounding infrastructure and transportation system.

As a member of the finance committee, my main focus is on protecting our local and regional economy. Closing Alaska's fiscal gap requires bi-partisan work, and the implementation of a long range fiscal plan. I support Governor Walker's Alaska Permanent Fund plan. Implementation of an endowment with a sustainable annual draw will extend the life of our savings and allow time for continued adjustments and new revenue measures to be put in place. It will also protect the annual dividend, and provide a sustainable revenue source for public services like education and the Alaska Marine Highway System.

These are challenging times, but Alaskans are rich in resources, resourcefulness, and potential. My door is always open. Please don't hesitate to call or email to discuss ideas for moving our great state forward. Thanks so much for your support.

I have spent years working at JAMHI, REACH, and for the Juneau School District. I have also worked at Fish and Game, UAS, TEMSCO Helicopters, and other businesses. This is my home and I know it well.

STATEMENT:

Dear fellow Alaskan,

My path to politics has been unusual. I am not from a political family. I am not a lawyer or a lobbyist. Instead, I work with kids who have special needs. I see the effects of our legislature's choices first hand.

Last year, Floyd Dryden Middle School didn't have enough funding to staff our free breakfast program. So I volunteered and reached out to other organizations for support. A thin boy attends the breakfasts. I often see him miss lunch. One day he came up to me and said, "It's really great that you have this. I usually don't get breakfast."

Right now, with the PFD reduction and without an income tax, that boy is contributing more to closing our fiscal gap than a non-Alaskan making hundreds of thousands of dollars here and spending them outside. We are hitting vulnerable Alaskans hardest and shielding outside interests.

What's more; our money is going to BP, Exxon-Mobile, and other big multinationals. Next fiscal year, we expect to pay $771 million dollars more to oil companies than we collect in production taxes. Bad deals are bankrupting our state. We are already cutting education, infrastructure, jobs, and vital services to pay for them.

We can change that. We can take ownership of Alaska. We can get a fair deal with oil companies and we can invest in Alaska. We can make hard choices ethically. With your support, I will work for Alaska alongside anyone who puts Alaskans first.

STATEMENT:

It's been my honor and privilege to serve as your Senator for the past 13 years. I'm running for re-election to continue working for the people of Southeast Alaska to increase economic opportunity, reduce the costs of energy, promote fiscal discipline, and work for public accountability in government.

Growing our economy is our future. We've improved the infrastructure, economy, and quality of life in our communities. I've worked to expand construction of our electrical intertie, roads, and ports, and enhance our fishing, logging and tourism industries. Together we've expanded Alaska's resource-based economy, leveled the playing field for rural school funding, improved vocational-education, and invested in public safety infrastructure and health care.

These positive steps forward are greatly helping in transitioning through our current budget constraints.
For us in Southeast, our region has been through tough economic times before and we will work through this one. We must solve the structural budget deficit while leaving the Permanent Fund intact for future generations of Alaskans. Leaving them with depleted oil basins and a liquidated Permanent Fund is unconscionable. Let's leave Alaska in better economic shape than when we received it from past generations.

My great-grandparents moved to Southeast Alaska in 1902. I have a deep respect for our state and its future. Let's work together to make Alaska prosperous for the next generation. I humbly ask for your vote this November, and hope to work with you to build a better future for Alaska.

STATEMENT:

I'm running for the District 35 State House seat to ensure the people of Southeast Alaska regain effective representation and greater influence in the Legislature.

With a small population relative to the rest of the state, we need Representatives who can chair committees and be at the table when the hard work is done. My background as a small business owner, founder and leader of organizations, and my work in the legislature, has prepared me to stand up for the needs of our Southeast communities.

The primary priority this year is balancing the State's budget. I'm not afraid to make tough, but fair, decisions to help make that happen. And, with decreased funding to communities; my attention to detail, critical thinking, and creative problem solving skills will be key to resolving the complicated issues and needs of Southeast Alaska.

I will strongly advocate for growth of the Alaskan economy through intelligent development and management of our natural resources; support for affordable energy; and a reliable, sustainable transportation system. The care and protection of our Veterans is our responsibility, and I take it seriously (as a Vietnam Vet widow). I'm also a supporter of quality education and training so that younger and older Alaskans develop the skills to keep Alaska on a growth trajectory.

Southeast Alaska needs a strong legislative team – a Senator and two Representatives working together. When elected, I will have a seat in the Majority. Your issues and concerns will have a strong voice and will be heard.

I love Southeast Alaska and I love our region's way of life.

As a representative of Southeast Alaska, I love that my job description is to help make our region more vibrant, sustainable, prosperous, and a better place to live.

I can't imagine a better job description. That's why I'm running for reelection: I want to keep working to help make our wet and rainy, island-speckled, beautiful part of the world a better place.

To get a sense of who I am, let me share a few but important principles I believe in:

I believe in the politics of humility: good ideas are good ideas no matter where they come from, and good people are good people no matter what party they belong to.

I serve as an Alaskan, not as a Democrat or a Republican; I believe bipartisanship and civility are as important to our politics as salmon and oil are to our economy. I believe our current legislature has forgotten this, and I want to keep working to change that.

I believe in the power of good ideas. Although it hasn't recently, I want to do everything in my power to make the legislature a place where good ideas happen.

I really like hard work.

I care about the people I represent. I find meaning in working hard for and with the people I represent.

I am grateful for your consideration and I would be more grateful yet for your support.

STATEMENT:

I'm honored and privileged to have the opportunity to serve as the Representative for District 36, southern Southeast Alaska. From day one, I've remained committed to making "government of the people, by the people, and for the people" a reality for all of our region's citizens.

I have had the good fortune to be a resident of Ketchikan for over 47 years. My wife, Lori, and I, along with our three children, have been blessed to live in a region where the sense of community is valued and preserved. It is my goal to show my gratitude for what I have been given by serving as the voice in our state government for each community in District 36.
My highest priority has been to accurately represent the viewpoints of the residents of Saxman, Wrangell, Metlakatla, Hyder, Hydaburg, Loring, Meyers Chuck, and Ketchikan. I have made a dedicated effort to do so by faithfully responding to constituent inquiries, hosting town hall meetings, conducting several fiscal plan surveys, and by walking door to door.

My term in office reflects a specific commitment to:
senior citizens, the fishing industry, the Alaska Marine Highway, and public education.

As I file again as a non-partisan independent for election to the Alaska State House of Representatives, I re-affirm my pledge to listen first, so that I may faithfully represent the viewpoints of the residents of District 36. Together, we can form a government of the

STATEMENT:

The upcoming months present significant challenges. That is what motivated me to become more involved in politics. It's time that average citizens work together to promote a government dedicated to "we the people", instead of political parties and politicians.

The PFD is constitutionally granted. I will not vote to change the current PFD calculations. Nor will I vote to allocate PFD money to fund unchecked government spending.

Alaska has an abundance of natural and renewable resources. It is important that we identify, promote, and use the available resources in each of our communities. This will be the only way to secure Alaska's long-term stability.

It is well recognized that children are the future. Therefore it is important that Alaska's education system provides equal opportunities to all children whether in public, private, or home schools. This would allow parents to individualize how their children are educated.

The people of Southeast Alaska are highly dependent on the Alaska Marine Highway. It is important to maintain the viability of the Alaska Marine Highway by promoting its efficiency.

Every person in our community deserves access to safe, high quality medical care. We must help our communities recruit and retain health care providers.

These are priorities I have identified, but I look forward to the opportunity to help identify and solve problems within District 36 and throughout Alaska. It is time to put our government back in check. I graciously ask for your vote.

I believe jobs are an important measure of the health of Alaska's economy. Alaska needs to do more to support a strong business climate for employers. I support the Alaska Marine Highway System and Southeast Conference's project to map out a more sustainable future for the system.

I am a strong supporter of the responsible development of our natural resources. I believe that resource development will provide more jobs for Alaskans. We Alaskans must work to overcome the bureaucratic barriers that hamper development in our state and question the federal regulations that prevent us from managing our own resources.

We need to get the State of Alaska's budget on track so that our state can invest in its future. Economic diversification will help immensely in our efforts to achieve this goal. I will promote and support growth and stability for the timber, mining, tourism, fishing, and mariculture industries.

The everyday work of the legislature is to address the challenges facing local communities. I want to work for our district, and I know that my experience serving locally—where government is closest to the people—is an asset. I have the ability to work well with people and build partnerships. The path ahead is rocky, and there will be more budget reductions; a common sense, cooperative approach is needed to move Alaska forward.

I will work for the health, safety, and economic future of our district's communities.

I would appreciate your vote and look forward to working for you. Thank you.

Ballot Measure No. 1- 15PFVR
An Act Allowing Qualified Individuals to Register to Vote When Applying for a Permanent Fund Dividend

Ballot Measure No. 1

This act would instruct the Division of Elections to register a qualified Alaskan to vote when applying for the permanent fund dividend (PFD). If a person registers to vote for the first time through a PFD application, the Division of Elections would compare the person's information to state records to ensure that the person is an eligible voter. The Division of Elections would let the citizen know if he or she has been added to the state registration list, or if the person's current voting address does not match the one provided on the PFD form. In that case, the person could change their voter registration address. The notice also would allow an applicant to request removal from the registration list. Thus, using the data from the PFD form, the Division of Elections would register a qualified Alaskan to vote unless he or she opts out. The notice would also allow a person to register with a political party. Voter information is already confidential under existing state law.

Legislative Affairs Agency Summary

This Act creates another method for a person to register to vote. A person could register using a permanent fund dividend (PFD) application. The person would have to attest that the information on the person's PFD form is true. Voter information on a PFD form would be provided to the Division of Elections. The division would check whether the person is eligible to vote. If the person is eligible, the person would be notified that the person will be registered to vote in this state. An out-of-state registration for the person would be canceled. The person has 30 days to respond to the notice and opt out. The Act provides that voter information on a PFD form would be as confidential as other voter information.

Total	$ 9,000

Estimated travel expenses include round-trip air transportation, per diem and other associated travel costs for the Lieutenant Governor and staff to travel to seven communities in Alaska: It is assumed one of the hearings would be in Anchorage which would not involve travel costs.

Division of Elections

As required by AS 15.45.090(a)(3) and (4), the Division of Elections has prepared the following statement of costs to implement the proposed ballot initiative.

The estimated cost to the Division of Elections associated with certification of the initiative application and review of the initiative petition, excluding legal costs to the state and the costs to the state of any challenge to the validity of the petition, is estimated to be $931,300. Contractual Services

The Division of Elections – The Voter Registration and Election Management System will require system configuration changes in order to comply with the requirements of the initiative. The cost estimate takes into consideration the limited timeframe to analyze the portions of the system that would need to be reconfigured if the initiative passes. This would be a one-time expense: $500,000

Costs for mailing notices to voters who are eligible but not registered, and those who are registered but have a different mailing address. This includes costs related to printing, postage and return mail service: $300,000

Printing of voter booklets: $1,300

Department of Revenue

Permanent Dividend Fund Division

As required by AS 15.45.090(a)(4), the Permanent Fund Dividend Division (PFDD) has prepared the following statement of cost to implement the proposed permanent fund dividend application and the registration of voters ballot initiative. The minimum cost to PFDD to implement this change is estimated to be $2,585.00.

The ballot initiative would amend AS 15.07.050(a) and register individuals to vote by completing a permanent fund dividend application under AS 43.23.015. The dividend application currently captures all but one of the required data elements outlined in AS 15.07.060(a)(1)-(4) and (7)-(9). The exception being, AS 15.07.060(a)(4), the applicant's Alaska residence address. The dividend application requires both a mailing and physical address, but neither is required to be within the state of Alaska. Minimal application programming will be required to modify the application to include a physical address if it must be within Alaska.

In addition, a statement of notification will be incorporated into the permanent fund dividend application. The notification language will explicitly explain that by completing a permanent fund dividend application the applicant will simultaneously be registered to vote.

Although, the projected costs associated with this ballot initiative are relatively insignificant to PFDD, the impact on the volume of public contact is an unknown variable. An increase in non-permanent fund dividend inquires will directly affect the time PFDD technicians have to meet the program's primary mission.

Permanent Dividend Fund Division – Estimate by Category

15 programming hours to modify PFD applications	$679
15 programming hours to include additional Alaskan address data entry component	$679
5 programming hours to create Elections file transfer report	$227
Increase in application printing costs to include additional Alaska address field	$1000
Total	$2,585

Ballot Measure No. 1

An Act Allowing Qualified Individuals to Register to Vote When Applying for a Permanent Fund Dividend

Statement in Support

Every eligible citizen in Alaska should have an equal opportunity to have their voice heard in our democracy. By combining the secure PFD application process with voter registration, this proposition will help protect the fundamental right of every eligible Alaskan citizen to vote—whether they are a senior in Anchorage, an active duty member of the military deployed overseas, or an Alaska Native in a rural community.

PFD Voter Registration is a small common-sense update to Alaska's elections process that streamlines government and saves taxpayer dollars by combining the annual PFD application with simultaneous voter registration. If it passes, the information submitted to the 2017 PFD application would also be sent to the Division of Elections. While the State processes your PFD, the Division of Elections will register eligible new voters and update the addresses of established voters. New voters will receive a notification in the mail to either declare a political affiliation or opt-out of the voter registration process.

The proposition would not alter or eliminate other forms of existing voter registration. Paper applications will still exist at the DMV or from voter registrars.

From a small change, our State can reap huge rewards. What are these benefits?

- We make government more efficient and save taxpayer dollars. Citizens can fill out one less government form, saving municipal clerks countless hours of manually inputting hand-written information for each voter. Meanwhile, the State saves money by printing and distributing less paper ballots. And, we stretch our resources by using the existing secure PFD application process.
- The voter database becomes more accurate and secure. By using the PFD's existing secure electronic verification system, this proposal will make sure that only eligible Alaska citizens are registered to vote. This reduces the possibility that those who are not legally allowed to participate in our elections process can take advantage of it.
- Every eligible voter gets an equal opportunity to have their voice heard in our democracy. By voting YES we will protect the fundamental right of every eligible Alaskan citizen to vote and will ensure that those who find it a challenge to vote are able to participate fully in our democracy. This is especially important for Alaskans serving in the military, residents living in rural communities, and Alaska Natives. It's estimated by the Division of Elections that approximately 70,000 eligible citizens living in Alaska could be registered to vote in just one year.

PFD Voter Registration is a simple update that makes voter registration more convenient for all Alaskans—be they Republican, Independent, or Democrat. Let's make government more efficient. Let's save taxpayer dollars. Let's make sure every Alaskan has an opportunity to have their voice heard. Vote YES on the PFD Voter Registration proposition.

This amendment to Article IX, section 8 of the Alaska Constitution would expand the State's authority to incur debt by letting the State issue general obligation bonds backed by the state for postsecondary student loans.

Should this constitutional amendment be adopted?

Yes No

Legislative Affairs Agency Summary

This measure would change the state constitution. This measure would allow the state to contract for state debt for postsecondary student loans. Current law only allows state debt for capital projects, housing loans for veterans, military defense, and other stated reasons. Current law requires state debt to be approved by law and the voters. This measure would require state debt for postsecondary student loans to be approved by law and the voters.

Full Text of the Proposed Constitutional Amendment

Proposing an amendment to the Constitution of the State of Alaska relating to contracting state debt for postsecondary student loans.

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF ALASKA:

* Section 1. Article IX, sec. 8, Constitution of the State of Alaska, is amended to read:

Section 8. State Debt. No state debt shall be contracted unless authorized by law for capital improvements, unless authorized by law for postsecondary student loans, or unless authorized by law for housing loans for veterans and ratified by a majority of the qualified voters of the State who vote on the question. The State may, as provided by law and without ratification, contract debt for the purpose of repelling invasion, suppressing insurrection, defending the State in war, meeting natural disasters, or redeeming indebtedness outstanding at the time this constitution becomes effective.

* Sec. 2. The amendment proposed by this resolution shall be placed before the voters of the state at the next general election in conformity with art. XIII, sec. 1, Constitution of the State of Alaska, and the election laws of the state.

Ballot Measure No. 2

Allow Debt for Postsecondary Education

Statement in Support

Ballot Measure No. 2 will provide the opportunity to reduce interest rates for Alaska student loans with no cost to the State or taxpayers.

- With affordable financing for college and career training, more Alaskans can invest in the training essential to fill the high-skill, high-wage jobs of Alaska's economy
- Ballot Measure No. 2 increases access to education and training, while helping minimize student debt
- Ballot Measure No. 2 has no projected costs to the State or taxpayers, and does not increase the state budget

This ballot measure adds education loan funding to other General Obligation debts already allowable under Alaska's Constitution: capital projects and certain veteran's housing projects. The resulting debt, and all operating costs, would be paid back as students repay their education loans.

The debt will be issued through the Alaska Student Loan Corporation (ASLC), which makes loans available to students at the lowest interest rates it can based on the bond market. For almost 30 years ASLC has issued and repaid more than $1.1 billion in bond debt. This ballot measure provides ASLC access to lower bond rates through the state's General Obligation credit rating. Results are: 1) reduced interest rates for Alaska's student loans; 2) increased options for eligibility criteria, making the loans available to more applicants; and 3) lower-interest student loan refinance programs.

Alaska's students rely on Alaska's loan programs. They are a critical component of the state's workforce development pipeline and help build and maintain a healthy state economy. This measure is an opportunity to support Alaska's future, at no cost to the State.

Judges on the Ballot

Alaska Judicial Council Evaluation and Recommendations

Why do judges appear on the ballot?

The Alaska Constitution and state law requires all state judges to appear periodically on the ballot for approval or disapproval by the voters. This power and duty of the people to vote whether to retain judges is a critical part of Alaska's judicial system.

What information is available about judges on the ballot?

Voters often feel they do not have enough information to vote on judges. To help voters make informed votes, the Alaska Judicial Council is required by law to evaluate the performance of sitting judges who are up for retention, and to make this information available to voters. The Alaska Judicial Council publishes its information in this Election Pamphlet, and on its web site at:

www.knowyouralaskajudges.com.

What judicial qualities did the Alaska Judicial Council evaluate?

The Judicial Council evaluated judges':

- Integrity, diligence, impartiality, fairness, temperament and legal ability,
- Ability to manage caseloads, and
- Overall performance of their duties in and out of the courtroom, including judgment.

How are judges chosen in Alaska?

Under the Alaska Constitution, the selection of judges is a two-part process involving the Alaska Judicial Council and the governor.

The Alaska Judicial Council is a non-partisan citizens' commission. The Council reviews applications of people who want to be judges and nominates the best-qualified among them. The governor appoints a judge from the list of nominees.

Retention Election. After appointment, judges must appear on the ballot in order to remain judges. The framers of our constitution thus provided Alaskans with a non-partisan, merit-based system of judicial selection, and a retention election that ensures judges remain accountable to the public.

What are the Alaska Judicial Council recommendations for judges on the 2016 ballot?

The Judicial Council recommends a vote on all judges standing for retention.

“YES”

Please review the following pages for more details about the recommendation on each judge.

How did the Alaska Judicial Council evaluate the judges on the 2016 ballot?

- Surveys: The Judicial Council surveyed thousands of Alaskans, including peace and probation officers, court employees, attorneys, jurors, and social services professionals.
- Public Hearings & Public Comment: The Judicial Council received comments from the public at a statewide public hearing, received comments about judges on its web site, and accepted comments from the public.
- Review of Other Information: The Judicial Council reviewed conflict of interest statements filed with the Alaska Public Offices Commission, and separate forms filed with the court system. It reviewed court personnel records. It researched whether any salary warrants were withheld for untimely decisions and whether any disciplinary matters came before the Alaska Commission on Judicial Conduct. The Judicial Council analyzed the number of peremptory challenges filed against a judge, and the number of times the judge's decisions were reversed on appeal.
- Considered Judges' Self-Assessments: The Judicial Council invited each judge to assess his or her own performance over his or her most recent term.
- Questioned Attorneys with Recent Experience: The Council invited attorneys who had recently litigated a case before each judge to provide detailed observations about the judge's performance in that case.

What is the Alaska Judicial Council?

- The Alaska Constitution sets the Judicial Council membership:
 - » Three members who are not attorneys are appointed by the governor and confirmed by a majority of each house of the Alaska Legislature;
 - » Three attorney are appointed by the Board of Governors of the Alaska Bar Association, an entity created and authorized by the Alaska Legislature; and
 - » The Chief Justice of the Alaska Supreme Court who serves as chair. (The Chief Justice does not vote unless his or her vote can affect an outcome.)

STATEMENT:

It has been an honor and a privilege to serve the people of Alaska as a judge on the Court of Appeals. The Alaska Court of Appeals is a high-volume criminal appellate court with a well-established tradition of analytical rigor and impartiality, and I have worked hard to continue those traditions and to meet the challenges of the increased caseload. I take my responsibilities as a judge on a multi-judge appellate court seriously and I strive to ensure that each case that comes before our court is decided fairly and expeditiously and in accordance with the Constitution and the laws of our state.

I have learned a tremendous amount since I was appointed and I am prepared to meet the challenges that will face our court and our state in the upcoming years. I would be honored to continue my service on the court and I hope that the people of Alaska vote to retain me to continue this work.

Superior Court Judge

David V. George, First Judicial District

SPECIAL INTERESTS:

Family, the outdoors, golf, travel, reading.

STATEMENT:

Fairness and integrity are critical to confidence in the courts. Fairness and integrity require courts be equally open to all, and that all receive a fair and impartial hearing. Confidence that a judge comes to a just result requires both actual fairness and the appearance of fairness. It is important, whether they win or lose that at the end of the case the parties have confidence the court indeed heard and considered their positions.

The public plays a vital role to ensure these principles prevail. When it supports honest judges the public helps keep courts impartial and free from the influence of special interests.

It is a privilege to serve as a Superior Court Judge in Southeast Alaska. Southeast is a wonderful place to live and the privilege of serving the Superior Court is immensely rewarding. I hope for your support so I may continue to serve the people of Alaska. Thank you.

STATEMENT:

After growing up in Detroit and Seattle, I came to Juneau in 1983 after I finished law school. The four greatest days in my life are the day I came to Alaska, the day I married my wife, and the days my children were born.

I have had the privilege of serving as a Superior Court Judge since 2007. It is a challenging job with a heavy caseload, but I have enjoyed the opportunity to serve. I hear an extraordinary mix of cases, including criminal, divorce and child custody, child protection, juvenile delinquency, adoption, personal injury, real estate and business disputes, probate, and a variety of other things. Being familiar with the law in all of these areas takes a great deal of reading and study.

A judge's primary obligation is to administer justice equally to all persons, guided always by the law. The job of a judge requires a delicate balance of fairness, firmness, diligence, patience and compassion.

People usually come to court at difficult times in their lives, and I always try to treat them with respect and understanding. Many people come to court without lawyers, and I always try to explain court procedures, give them a fair opportunity to be heard, and set out the basis for my decisions in understandable language.

I would be honored to continue to serve as a judge, if the people would like me to do so.

addiction insofar as it leads to crime and destruction of families. I am fortunate to be the Therapeutic Court Judge in addition to my other duties. It is heartwarming to see people rise from their addiction and succeed. I truly look forward to continuing service to the court and the people of Alaska.

OTHER:

Judge Nave moved to Alaska 40 years ago after graduating from law school. He worked for three years as an associate in a law firm then the Public Defender Agency where he became deputy director. In 1985, he started his own law firm and practiced until Governor Parnell appointed him to the District Court one year ago. In private practice, Judge Nave specialized in criminal, personal injury, wrongful death and legal malpractice cases. Before taking the bench, he was a member of the Alaska Judicial Council for six years and the Alaska Commission on Judicial Conduct for five years. He is married to Susan Cox and they have two adult children.

STATEMENT:

Serving Juneau for the past six years has provided a challenge, satisfaction and sometimes joy. Although I have been in law for forty years, still each day is important and each participant unique. I believe I bring to the bench the experience of many years of practice and a perspective gained by representing a large number of clients and presiding over thousands of cases. District Court is primarily a criminal court. Those who appear—defendants and victims—have a right to expect fair treatment. To that end, I believe it is essential they are treated with respect and listened to carefully. The law must be applied impartially and with an eye toward justice. Many who come before the court suffer from addiction beyond their ability to control. Juneau is fortunate to have created the Juneau Therapeutic Court. That court has been very successful in breaking the cause and effect of

STATEMENT:

It is a privilege and an honor to serve the State of Alaska as an Anchorage Superior Court judge. For the last 11 years, I have presided over criminal, civil, family, probate, juvenile delinquency and child-in-need-of-aid cases. I work hard to prepare for each case, give each side a fair opportunity to present its side of the story, and render timely and just decisions. I respect the people who serve as jurors and I run my trials efficiently to minimize the impact to each juror's other responsibilities. Many people come to court without an attorney and I am committed to providing them the same access to justice as those represented by an attorney. Integrity is a cornerstone of my profession and I strive to represent Alaska with honor. I diligently manage each case so there can be no question of my commitment to ensuring each person has a fair opportunity to present his or her case and be heard. I have served the State of Alaska to the best of my ability and look forward to serving the state and its citizens in the future.

I have been honored to serve as a judge for over 15 years and I am still excited about the job. I am particularly interested in cases involving children and serve on two court committees that deal with improving the way the court handles Children in Need of Aid cases. One day a week I also act as a settlement judge for cases assigned to other judges. This work allows the public to more directly solve their own disputes.

I believe that the law is held in trust for all people, not just the rich and powerful, and that justice should be the primary focus of our court system. I believe that all persons should have access to our courts, not just those who can afford a lawyer. I understand the legal system is very expensive for most people and have worked to improve access to the courts for those who cannot afford a lawyer. If retained, I will continue to work hard toward these goals.

OTHER:

I worked construction and as a forester, logger and wildland firefighter before practicing law. Then, three years in private practice and 23 in the Alaska A.G.'s office. That last job required me to work with many in rural Alaska, which I loved. Now, I have done four years as a judge, one handling mostly divorces and three handling mostly criminal cases.

STATEMENT:

Many of you have served on my juries. Thank you. Our justice system would founder without people like you who are willing to do the hard work necessary for jury service. I believe passionately in the basic fairness of our justice system, even though it is, of course, not perfect. Judges play important roles in that system, too, as they decide, both before and during trial, what jurors should, in fairness, have presented to them based on the vast body of law laid down throughout our history.
My four years as a judge have required me to learn and apply a lot of new things. As I've gotten on step, things have generally gone more smoothly, but it's obvious there will always be more to learn. Your comments are always appreciated. I believe that all comments should be reviewed, and even the most negative should cause self-examination. These retention elections are one of the few times judges get a general view as to how the public thinks they are doing. So, don't hold back.
Thanks again for your diligence and the work you have
and will put in as jurors.

STATEMENT:
My work as a judge at the Palmer court has been the most rewarding experience in my career. In fact, the rewards come nearly every day. On Monday, I might be helping a couple work through the break-up of their family in a respectful and child-centered way. On Tuesday, I might get to talk about the future with a young person who has been charged with a crime and watch that person begin to understand what it is going to take to turn his/her life around. Other days can include heartbreak for the people who come to court and for me, as well. Whether the day includes joy, despair, or perhaps a little of both, every moment that I have worked for this community has left me humbled by the responsibility my neighbors have vested in me. I hope I can continue to earn your trust and confidence.

If I am retained, I will continue to work hard to manage the heavy caseload Palmer judges are assigned here in "the biggest little courthouse in Alaska." I will focus on insuring that every person who comes to my courtroom feels that I have listened and tried my best to make the right decisions about their lives, their family, and the Mat-Su Valley.

SERVICE ORGANIZATION(S) MEMBERSHIP:

SPECIAL INTERESTS:

Other:

After working with victims of domestic violence, I decided to attend law school. After my clerkship, I worked as an Assistant District Attorney in Fairbanks, returning to Anchorage in 2000 to prosecute sex crimes. I took a position as an Assistant Public Advocate working with foster children as a Guardian ad Litem, and representing juvenile delinquents. I opened my own law office in 2010, doing criminal defense and adoptions. I was appointed to the District Court in 2012.

STATEMENT:

I was raised in a military family, moving many times, including four years in London. I never lived near family growing up, so as an adult I had wide latitude in choosing where to make my home. When I came to work in Alaska, I knew this was where I was meant to be. Twenty-two years later, I've had the privilege to be a law clerk, a state prosecutor, a public advocate, and the owner of a solo practice—in addition to serving as both a juror and a judge. I have done trials from St. Paul to Delta Junction, always taking advantage of opportunities to explore our great state. I have run the Mount Marathon race eleven times (and volunteer every year as well) and the Equinox Marathon a dozen times.

I recognize someone's "day in court" is difficult and important. I listen to each case with fairness and patience, and treat each party with respect and dignity. As many District Court litigants represent themselves, I try to explain my decisions in plain language and issue orders promptly, as I recognize litigating is a challenge for everyone involved. I strive for efficiency as I understand and appreciate the sacrifices jurors make to serve.

I understand the great honor it is to hold the position I do and hope the voters have confidence to allow me to continue.

Since 2005, I have served as a district court judge, with the exception of serving as a full time pro tem judge on the Alaska Court of Appeals for a little over a year from 2013 to 2014.

I am committed to honoring the time of jurors and providing access to justice for all participants, including those without attorneys. I consider each case before me individually, carefully, and impartially, and try to issue decisions promptly. STATEMENT:

Since coming to Alaska in 2001, I have felt lucky to get to live and work in this amazing state. My work as an attorney in this state has exposed me to a variety of civil and criminal matters. While at the Anchorage District Attorney's Office, I prosecuted cases in the misdemeanor, drug, and violent crimes units, before supervising the misdemeanor unit. Following that work, I practiced in civil litigation, defending parties in matters that ranged from personal injury to contract to intellectual property cases. This background in both criminal and civil litigation provided excellent preparation for my work as a district court judge, where I have regularly presided over cases in both arenas.

It has truly been an honor to be allowed to serve my community as a district court judge during the last three years. I have been repeatedly impressed by the dedication of the Alaska Court System and its employees to making the system open, accessible, and fair for all litigants. I am also constantly mindful that the litigants coming before me in court are there pursuing cases and/or defenses that are of the utmost importance in their lives, deserving of the Court's time, attention, and respect. Every day, I strive to be fair, impartial, and respectful to those appearing in my courtroom. I look forward to the opportunity to continue serving the public in this manner.

OTHER:

It has been a great privilege to serve the Mat-Su community for more than 25 years. During my career, I have had the opportunity through teaching, coaching, and working with families to see how the court system can touch so many lives and really make a positive difference. I was also fortunate to be able to help establish the Mat-Su Youth Court, an organization that has guided many of our younger citizens by reinforcing in them the responsibility that they have for their conduct.

STATEMENT:

A cherished friend and mentor once told me that a judge's job is to listen. I took that to heart, and I strive to listen carefully to each person who enters my courtroom, treating them with dignity and respect. A courtroom is not usually a pleasant place for litigants to be. I try to be sure that the parties know that even if in the end I greatly disagree with their side, their views were heard and their positions considered seriously with an open mind.

As I have friends whose families were healed through participation in Therapeutic Courts, I am excited about the opportunity to work with this in the Palmer Court. Our existing Mental Health Community Resources Program has assisted many people who were otherwise overlooked by the system. The chance to expand this to help people with substance abuse problems beat their addictions and thus lessen the amount of burglaries and other property crimes in our area is an effective way to be of even greater service to my community.

According to a Pew Research study, Americans are more interested in the 2016 elections than during any presidential cycle since 1992.

But before we get to November, there's a lot of work to do. It's time to study the issues and the candidates, and decide where your values line up in relation to the people offering to serve as our lawmakers.

Getting involved on a statewide level has renewed my faith in our system of government and I've met many people who volunteer long hours to make our democracy work.

My goals as chairman are to elect more Republicans, raise money, grow our party, and make sure we have fun doing so. I invite you to get involved at your precinct and district level.

You are welcome in the GOP, the party of Abe Lincoln, Ronald Reagan, and a growing number of Alaska voters.

We have some great candidates running this year and Alaskans will be well-served by Republicans who advocate for a smaller government footprint, and a bigger private sector job base in Alaska.

Join us. We welcome you to the Alaska Republican Party, the "Great Opportunity Party."

As something that touches the life of nearly every Alaskan, the Permanent Fund (Fund) holds a special place in the culture and economy of our great state. November marks the 40th anniversary of the historic 1976 vote by Alaskans to amend our state constitution and create the Fund, a vote showing foresight and commitment to the wellbeing and benefit of all Alaskans.

After four years of careful consideration, in 1980 the State Legislature created the Alaska Permanent Fund Corporation (APFC), with the sole purpose to invest and manage the Fund. In honoring the Fund's 40th anniversary, we are mindful of the sound management of state resources – the fortitude – that has prepared us for this juncture in Alaska's history. APFC has worked diligently to maximize the value of the Fund through prudent long-term investment and protection of principal to produce income to benefit all current and future generations of Alaskans. The Fund has grown from the first deposit of oil revenues totaling $734,000 to a value of just under $53 billion today.

As the steward of Alaska's largest public fund, APFC takes pride in openly sharing our progress. We have a small team that accomplishes a diverse set of tasks, always with an eye for integrity and efficiency in fulfilling our mission to build wealth for Alaska. Our talented staff often surpasses Wall Street investment firms in growing our assets while still making time to fish, climb mountains, and raise families—it's the Alaskan way. This year, APFC welcomed Angela Rodell as Chief Executive Officer, with more than 20 years of finance experience in both public and private sectors. Russell Read also joined the team as Chief Investment Officer (CIO), bringing experience as CIO of CalPERS and Gulf Investment Corporation along with a PhD in Political Economy from Stanford.

APFC has built international credibility for its strength and prudent investment decisions. The U.S. Treasury considers APFC to be a shining representation of the United States on the global financial stage. Over the last 40 years, we have invested in a variety of assets including stocks, bonds, real estate, infrastructure, and private equity. All investments must balance expected return with any risks that are undertaken, which APFC then diversifies to achieve a portfolio with a compelling overall risk-adjusted return. The investment strategies of APFC have continued to adapt and develop over the past four decades as global economies have become more interdependent and our world evolves.

Born from our rich natural resources and developed through acumen and insight, the importance of the Fund has gone from conceptual to actual. Given Alaska's shifting economic climate, the Fund is now central to public dialogue about the composition of state funding. The decisions that Alaskans face are by no means easy, and we are tremendously fortunate to have the Fund in existence, as both a renewable source of revenue and as a symbol of commitment to Alaskans' long-term prosperity.

Success in the current financial landscape requires expertise, adaptability, and perseverance to identify and respond to opportunities and risks—APFC is prepared to meet the challenge. We look forward to our continued service as investment manager of the Alaska Permanent Fund.

Sincerely,

William Moran

WHAT IS THE ALASKA PERMANENT FUND?

The Fund is an investment fund created through a Constitutional Amendment approved by Alaskans in 1976 as a way to save a portion of our oil revenues for the needs of future generations. It uses oil royalties to make investments in bonds, stocks, real estate, infrastructure, and private entities. The returns on these investments are used to grow and finance the Fund. Since 1983, the Alaska Permanent Fund Dividend Division has distributed a portion of the earnings to Alaskans annually in the form of a dividend.

WHO MANAGES THE FUND?

The Alaska Permanent Fund Corporation (APFC) is a team of highly skilled business professionals who manage the day-to-day operations of the Fund. APFC is overseen by a six-member Board of Trustees appointed by the governor and operates as one of the most cost-effective institutional investors in the nation.

WHAT DOES THE FUND MEAN TO ALASKA'S FUTURE?

In a state with primarily non-renewable resources, the Fund generates renewable revenue. In most years since its creation, the Fund has been the second-largest producer of state revenue, trailing only the oil industry.

The Fund is a progressive concept that provides a source of renewable revenue for Alaska; when oil and gas revenues are diminishing, the Fund is still growing. The Fund's successful adaptation to the varied global economic climates fortifies its significance to the State's future.

HOW DOES THE FUND WORK?

The Fund is divided into two parts: Principal (non-spendable) and Earnings Reserve (spendable), both of which are fully invested. The Alaska Constitution articulates that the Principal shall only be used for income-producing investments. The Earnings Reserve account, established in Alaska Statutes, may be spent through appropriations passed by the Legislature.

HOW DOES THE FUND GROW?

The Fund has four sources of potential growth each year:

1. Royalties—the State Constitution directs that at least 25% of Alaska's mineral royalties (primarily oil royalties) be deposited into the Fund.
2. Income—inflows from stock dividends, bond interest, and real estate rental fees.
3. Capital Gains—gain (or loss) on assets from the time they are purchased until either the most current date (unrealized) or when they are sold (realized).
4. Inflation Proofing—based on a statutory calculation and legislative appropriation.

HOW IS THE FUND INVESTED ?

Originally, the Fund was only invested in bonds. Now it is invested in all major asset classes, which earn income and can grow in value. By diversifying the Fund's investments, the value of the Fund is better protected against global economic fluctuations. When one asset class has a down year, it is often balanced by good performance in other asset classes. In 2009, the Board of Trustees created risk-based categories to guide asset allocation. Although the underlying portfolio did not materially change, grouping investments by the economic conditions that affect them has allowed the staff and Trustees to better understand, predict, and position the Fund in the face of changing market conditions.
